

Notice by Bankruptcy Trustees of TRANSASIA AIRWAYS CORPORATION

Date: Aug. 7th, 2026

If the creditors of the bankruptcy estate of TransAsia Airways Corporation (hereinafter referred to as the “Bankruptcy Estate”) have changed their name or account detail after the first distribution, should notice the trustees of the Bankruptcy Estate (hereinafter referred to as the “Trustees”) in writing and provide supporting documents before September 30th, 2026.

1、On June 18th 2026, Taiwan Shilin District Court (hereinafter called the “Court”) recognized, by issuing a ruling with the reference number 107 Zhi-Po-Zi No. 8 as attached hereto in Appendix 1), the second distribution table of the Bankruptcy Estate prepared and submitted by the Trustees. Since no objection had been raised against such ruling within the prescribed period of time, the ruling is now binding.

2、In order to carry out the second distribution of the Bankruptcy Estate in the ratio and manner as indicated in the aforesaid distribution table, if Creditors' name or account detail have changed after the first distribution, is hereby requested to designate to the Trustees in writing (including e-mails) as soon as possible (Contact information of the Trustees: office at 11th floor, No. 164, Fuxing North Road, Zhongshan Dist., Taipei City 10487, Taiwan; e-mail: kyo@viajustice.com.tw). If Creditors failed to provide such information and lead to transfer failure, the additional loss of time and remittance fee should be afford by Creditors themselves.

- 3 、 Since remittance fee is going to be afford by Creditors. If the amount to be distributed is too low to pay the expenses, it will be reserved until the next distribution.

Bankruptcy Trustee, Yueh-Lin Lee, attorney-at-law
Bankruptcy Trustee, Li-Chen Lai, certified public accountant

Appendix 1: 107 Zhi-Po-Zi No. 8 Ruling